

Certificate programme for working professionals

Translational Research & Medicine: From Idea to Product

Are you working in translational research and medicine? The certificate programme “Translational Research & Medicine: From Idea to Product” provides you with the opportunity to expand your network with key opinion leaders as well as institutes in your region – you become part of the translational community Hannover-Braunschweig.

Acquire compact knowledge that will help you to optimize project interfaces and timelines.

Learn from the best and profit from exciting job rotations – a springboard for your career.

CURRICULUM

24 months; start every year in October
(approx. 260 credit hours)

TARGET GROUP

Research, medicine, industry, competent authorities (min. 2 years of professional experience)

COSTS

4,800 € (Partners 2,400 €)

QUESTIONS

Christiane Bock von Wülfingen

0511 532 7344

bockvonwuefingen.christiane@mh-hannover.de

REGISTRATION

Maria Gottschow

0511 22002 7112

train@twincore.de

Supported by:

MODULES

Course content of the curriculum:

- Idea – first steps
- Quality assurance
- Discovery & development of small molecules
- Development and manufacturing of ATMPs and other biologicals
- Development and marketing authorization of medical devices and tissue engineered medicinal products
- Pre-clinical development
- Clinical development
- Regulatory affairs, approval of medicinal products and ethics
- Cross-process aspects
- Transferable skills
- Rotation, career-coaching & consulting
- Key note lectures

Certified programme for professionals in accordance with the European Qualifications Framework (EQR 8)

LECTURERS

Our lecturers are actively involved in the different phases of translation including basic research, preclinical studies, and clinical studies. You profit from both the practical experience and theoretical background of lecturers working in academia, industry and regulatory agencies.

